

Two Little Cuties

Susan is visiting from Virginia
Madison is again with her best friend
Together they make a lovely pair
While getting into their grandparent's hair.

Six and four years of age
What trouble could they cause?
These two little cuties
This lovely pair, having no flaws.

The nail polish is spread, not on fingers.
But on their legs, instead.
They proudly portray their art work
Did all this work, while we were in bed.

Who's idea was this? Nana asks.
It was hers, they both said.
Pointing fingers at the other
As our laugh, we attempted to smother.

Separately they both act like little angels.
Together they can stir up a hornets nest.
Times comes, when their minds melt.
Then we have to deal with a mess.

Two little cuties, sweet and fun.

Can come together as one.

Are hard to discipline, the two.

When getting in trouble too.

They are best friends when together.

When things go right, with each other.

When things go wrong and they do.

Mothers are there, for the two.
