

The Devil's Playground

The devil's play ground is the idle mind.

So you best find something to do.

Anything to occupy your time.

When imagining things that do not exist,

An idle mind congers up negative thoughts.

The perfect formula for evilness.

Why does the devil dwell in this place?

No time, moves there,

Only a playground of selfishness.

The devil finds comfort in the cesspool;

A place he sows his seeds of filth and sin.

Don't play his game, don't be a fool.

Do not find comfort in this pit, in the slime.

He will harvest your soul,

In the darkness of the idle mind.
